

Ytalia. Energy, Thought, Beauty Florence, June 2nd – October 1st 2017

Forte di Belvedere – Galleria degli Uffizi – Palazzo Vecchio – Palazzo Pitti – Giardino di Boboli – Santa Croce – Museo Novecento – Museo Marino Marini.

“Ytalia. Energy, Thought, Beauty” is the new major exhibition of contemporary art promoted by Comune di Firenze and organized by MUS.E. The exhibition will be held in Forte Belvedere and will involve Florence major museums, including the Uffizi Gallery, Palazzo Vecchio, Pitti Palace, Boboli Gardens, Santa Croce Church, Museo Novecento and Museo Marino Marini.

Ytalia will feature works of art by: Giovanni Anselmo, Marco Bagnoli, Domenico Bianchi, Alighiero Boetti, Gino De Dominicis, Luciano Fabro, Jannis Kounellis, Mario Merz, Nunzio, Mimmo Paladino, Giulio Paolini e Remo Salvadori.

“Ytalia” is an ambitious project with the aim to start a dialogue between Florence’s incredible historical and artistical heritage and the art of the Twentieth Century: daily and metaphysical reality, natural elements and new mythologies are the recurring themes of the selected works of art.

An “invasion” in the heart of Renaissance that aims to bring the attention of the international public on the Italian contemporary art.

The exhibition is directed by Sergio Risaliti and curated by Sergio Risaliti and Marco Bazzini.
